CHAPTER III
Registration and Licensing

12. Manner of making application for registration of establishments:—(1) The application referred to in sub-section (1) of Section 7 shall be made in triplicate, in Form I to the registering officer of the area in which the establishment sought to be registered is located.

(2) The application referred to in sub-rule (1), shall be accompanied by a treasury receipt showing payment of the fees for the registration of the establishment.

(3) Every application referred to in sub-rule (1), shall be either personally delivered to the registering officer or sent to him by registered post.

(4) On receipt of the application referred to in sub-rule (1), the registering officer shall, after noting thereon the date of receipt by him of the application, grant an acknowledgement to the applicant.

13. Grant of certificate of registration:—(1) The certificate of registration granted under sub-section(2) of Section 7 shall be in Form II.

(2) The registering officer shall maintain a register in Form III showing the particulars of establishments in relation to which certificates of registration have been issued by him.

(3) If, in relation to an establishment, there is any change, in the particulars specified in the certificate or registration, the principal employer of the establishment shall intimate to the registering officer, within thirty days from the date when such change takes place, the particulars of, and the reasons for, such change.

14. Amendment of certificate of registration:—(1) Where, on receipt of the intimation under sub-rule(3) of rule 13, the registering officer is satisfied that an amount higher than the amount which has been paid by the principal employer as fees for the registration of the establishment is payable he shall require such principal employer to deposit a sum which, together with the amount already paid by such principal employer, would be equal to such higher amount of fees payable for the registration of the establishment and to produce the treasury receipt showing such deposit.

(2) Where, on receipt of the intimation referred to in sub-rule (3) of rule 13, the registering officer is satisfied that there has occurred a change in the particulars of the establishment, as entered in the register in Form-III he shall amend the said register and record therein the change which has occurred:

Provided that no such amendment shall effect anything done or any action taken or any right, obligation or liability acquired or incurred before such amendment:

Provided further that the registering officer shall not carry out any amendment in the register in Form III unless the appropriate fees have been deposited by the principal employer.

15. Application for a licence:—(1) Every application by a contractor for the grant of a licence shall be made in triplicate, in Form IV, to the licencing officer of the area in which the establishment, in relation to which he is the contractor, is located.

(2) Every application for the grant of a licence shall be accompanied by a certificate by the principal employer in Form V to the effect that the applicant has been employed by him as a contractor in relation to his establishment and that he undertakes to be bound by all the provisions of the Act and the Rules made thereunder in so far as the provisions are applicable to him as principal employer in respect of the employment of contract labour by the applicant.

(3) Every such application shall be either personally delivered to the licensing officer or sent to him by registered post.

(4) On receipt of the application referred to in sub-rule (1), the licencing officer shall, after noting thereon the date of receipt of the application, grant an acknowledgement to the applicant.

(5) Every application referred to in sub-rule (1), shall also be accompanied by a treasury receipt showing—

(i) the deposit of the security at the rates specified in rule 18, and

(ii) the payment of the fees at the rates specified in rule 20.

16. Matters to be taken into account in granting or refusing a licence:—In granting or refusing to grant a licence, the licensing officer shall take the following matters into account, namely,

(a) Whether the applicant—

(i) is a minor, or

(ii) is of unsound mind and stands so declared by a competent Court, or
(iii) is an undischarged insolvent, or.

(iv) has been convicted (at any time during a period of five years immediately preceding the date of application) of an offence which, in the opinion of the State Government, involves moral turpitude;

(b) Whether there is an order of the appropriate Government or an award or settlement for the abolition of contract labour in respect of the particular type of work in the establishment for which the applicant is a contractor;

(c) Whether any order has been made in respect of the applicant under sub-section (1) of section 14, and, if so, whether a period of three years has elapsed from the date of that order;

(d) Whether the fees for the application have been deposited at the rates specified in rule 20; and

(e) Whether security has been deposited by the applicant at the rates specified in rule 18.

17. Refusal to grant licence:—(1) On receipt of the application, and as soon as possible thereafter, the licensing officer shall make such enquiry as he considers necessary to satisfy himself about the eligibility of the applicant for's licence.

(2) (i) Whether the licensing officer is of opinion that the licence should not be granted, he shall, after affording reasonable opportunity to the applicant to be heard, make an order rejecting the application.

(ii) The order shall record the reasons for the refusal and shall be communicated to the applicant.

18. Security:—(1) Before a licence is issued, an amount calculated at the rate of Rs. 30/- for each of the workmen to be employed as contract labour, in respect of which the application for licence has been made, shall be deposited by the contractor for due performance of the conditions of the licence and compliance with the provisions of the Act or the Rules made thereunder.

(2) The amount of security deposit shall be paid in the local treasury under the Head of account 843-CD-Civil Deposit being the security money against engagement of the contract labour.

19. Forms and terms and conditions of licence:—

(1) Every licence granted under sub-section (1) of Section 12 shall be in Form VI.

(2) Every licence granted under sub-rule (1) or renewed under rule 23 shall be subject to the following conditions, namely:

(i) the licence shall be non-transferable;

(ii) the number of workmen employed as contract labour in the establishment shall not, on any day, exceed the maximum number specified in the licence;

(iii) save as provided in these rules, the fees paid for the grant or as the case may be, for renewal of the licence shall be non-refundable;

(iv) the rates of wages payable to the workmen by the contractor shall be not less than the rates prescribed under the Minimum Wages Act, 1948 (11 of 1948) for such employment where applicable, and where the rates have been fixed by agreement settlement or award, not less than the rates so fixed;

(v) (a) in cases where the workmen employed by the contractor perform the same or similar kind of work as the workmen directly employed by the principal employer of the establishment, the wage rates, holidays, hours of work and other conditions of service of the workmen of the contractor shall be the same as applicable to the workmen directly employed by the principal employer of the establishment on the same or similar kind of work:

Provided that in the case of any disagreement with regard to the type of work the same shall be decided by the Chief Labour Officer whose decision shall be final;

(b) in other cases the wage rates, holidays, hours of work and conditions of service of the workmen of the contractor shall be such as may be specified in this behalf by the Chief Labour Officer.

Explanation:—While determining the wage rates, holidays, hours of work and other conditions of service under (b) above, the Chief Labour Officer shall have due regard to the wage rates, holidays, hours of work and other conditions of service obtaining in similar employment.

(vi) the licence shall notify any change in the number of workmen or the conditions of work to the licensing officer.

21. Validity of the licence—Every licence granted under rule 19 or renewed under rule 23 shall remain in force for twelve months from the date it is granted or renewed.

22. Amendment of the licence—(1) A licence issued under rule 19 or renewed under rule 23 may, for good and sufficient reasons, be amended by the licensing officer.

(2) The contractor who desires to have the licence amended shall submit to the licensing officer an application stating the nature of the amendment and reasons therefor.

(3) (i) If the licensing officer allows the application he shall require the applicant to furnish a treasury receipt for the amount, if any, by which the fees that would have been payable if the licence had been originally issued in the amended form exceeds the fees originally paid for the licence.

(ii) On the applicant furnishing the requisite treasury receipt the licence shall be amended according to the orders of the licensing officer.

(4) Where the application for amendment is refused the licensing officer shall record the reasons for such refusal and communicate the same to the applicant.

23. Renewal of licence—

(1) Every contractor shall apply to the licensing officer for renewal of the licence.

(2) Every such application shall be in Form VII in triplicate and shall be made not less than thirty days before the date on which the licence expires, and if the application is so made, the licence shall be deemed to have been renewed until such date when the renewed licence is issued.

(3) The fees chargeable for renewal of the licence shall be the same as for the grant thereof:

Provided that if the application for renewal is not received within the time specified in sub-rule (2), a fee of 25 percent in excess of the fee ordinarily payable for the licence shall be payable for such renewal:

Provided further that in case where the licensing officer is satisfied that the delay in submission of the application is due to unavoidable circumstances beyond the control of the contractor, he may reduce or remit as he thinks fit the payment of such excess fee.

24. Issue of duplicate certificate of registration or licence—Where a certificate of registration or a licence granted or renewed under the preceding rules has been lost, defaced or accidentally destroyed, a duplicate may be granted on payment of fees of rupees five.

25. Refund of security—(1) (i) On expiry of the period of licence the contractor may, if he does not intend to have his licence renewed, make an application to the Licensing Officer for the refund of the security deposited by him under rule 18.

(ii) If the licensing officer is satisfied that there is no breach of the conditions of licence or there is no order under Section 14 for the forfeiture of security or any portion thereof, he shall direct the refund of the security to the applicant.

(2) If there is any order directing the forfeiture of any portion of the security, the amount to be forfeited shall be deducted from the security deposit, and balance, if any, refunded to the applicant.

(3) Any application for refund shall, as far as possible be disposed of within 60 days of the receipt of the application.

26. Grant of temporary certificate of registration and licence—

(1) Where conditions arise in an establishment requiring the employment of contract labour immediately and such employment is estimated to last for not more than fifteen days, the principal Employer of the establishment or the contractor, as the case may be, may apply for a temporary certificate of registration or licence to the registering officer or the licensing officer, as the case may be, having jurisdiction over the area in which the establishment is situated.

(2) The application for such temporary certificate of registration or licence shall be made in triplicate in Forms VIII and X respectively and shall be accompanied by a treasury receipt or a crossed postal order drawn in favour of the appropriate Registering or Licensing Officer, as the case may be, showing the payment of appropriate fees and in the case of licence the appropriate amount of security also.

(3) On receipt of the application, complete in all respects, and on being satisfied either on affidavit by the applicant or otherwise that the work in respect of which the application has been made would be finished in period of fifteen days and was of a nature which could not but be carried out immediately, the registering officer or the licensing officer, as the case may be, shall forthwith grant a certificate of registration in Form IX or a licence in Form XI, as the case may be, for a period of not more than fifteen days.

(4) Where a certificate of registration or licence is not granted the reasons therefor shall be recorded by the registering officer or the licensing officer, as the case may be.

(5) On the expiry of the validity of the registration certificate the establishment shall cease to employ in the establishment contract labour in respect of which the certificate was given.

(6) The fees to be paid for the grant of the certificate of registration under sub-rule (3) shall be as specified below:

If the number of workmen proposed to be employed on contract on any day—

(a) Exceeds 20 but does not exceed 50 Rs. 10.00
(b) Exceeds 50 but does not exceed 200 Rs. 20.00
(c) Exceeds 200 Rs. 30.00

(7) The fees to be paid for the grant of licence under sub-rule(3), shall be as specified below:

If the number of workmen to be employed by the contractor on any day—

(a) Exceeds 20 but does not exceed 50 Rs. 5.00
(b) Exceeds 50 but does not exceed 200 Rs. 20.00
(c) Exceeds 200 Rs. 30.00

(8) The provision of rule 17 and rule 18 shall apply to the refusal to grant licence or to grant licence under sub-rule(4) and sub-rule(3) respectively.

CHAPTER IV

ised representative of the principal employer as required by rule 62.

(d) Register of deductions for damage or loss, Register of fines and Register of advances shall be maintained by every Contra-tor in Form XX, XXI and XXII respectively.
(e) A register of overtime shall be maintained by every Contract in Form XXIII to record therein number of hours and wages paid for overtime work, if any.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in these rules, where a combined or alternative form is sought to be used by the Contractor to avoid duplication of work for compliance with the provisions of any other Act or the Rules framed thereunder or any other laws or regulations or cases where mechanised pay rolls are introduced for better administration, alternative form or forms in lieu of any of the forms prescribed under these rules, may be used with the previous approval of the Chief Labour Officer.

Every Contractor shall display an abstract of the Act and Rules in English and Bengali and in the language spoken by the majority of workers in such a form as may be approved by the Chief Labour Officer.

69. (1) All registers and other records required to be maintained under the Act and rules, shall be maintained complete and up-to-date, and unless otherwise provided for shall be kept at the office or the nearest convenient building within the precincts of the work place or at the place within a radius of three kilometres.

(2) Such register shall be maintained legibly in English and Bengali.

(3) All the registers and other records shall be preserved in original for a period of three calendar years from the date of last entry therein.

(4) All the registers, records and notices maintained under the Act or Rules shall be produced on demand before the Inspector or any other authority under the Act or any person authorised in that behalf by the State Government.

(5) Where no deduction or fine has been imposed or no overtime has been worked during any wage period, a 'nil' entry shall be made across the body of the register at the end of the wage period indicating also in precise terms the wage period to which the 'nil' entry relates. In the respective registers maintained in Forms XX, XXI and XXIII respectively.

69. (6) (i) Notices showing the rates of wages, hours of work, wage periods, dates of payment of wages, names and addresses of the inspectors having jurisdiction, and date of payment of unpaid wages, shall be displayed in English and in Bengali and in the language understood by the majority of the workers in conspicuous places at the establishment and the work-site by principal employer or the contractor, as the case may be.

(ii) The notices shall be correctly maintained in a clean and legible condition.

(b) A copy of the notice shall be sent to the Inspector and whenever any change occurs the same shall be communicated to him forthwith.

70. (1) Every contractor shall send half yearly return in Form XXIV (induplicate) so as to reach the licensing officer concerned not later than 30 days from the close of the half year.

NOTE—Half year for the purpose of this rule means a period of six months commencing from 1st January to 1st July of every year.

(2) Every principal employer of a registered establishment shall send annually a return in Form XXV (induplicate) so as to reach the Registering Officer concerned not later than the 15th February, following the end of the year to which it relates.

21. (1) The Chief Labour Officer or the Inspector or any other authority under the Act shall have power to call for any information, or statistics in relation to contract labour from any contractor or principal employer at any time by an order in writing.

(2) Any person called upon to furnish the information under sub-rule (1) shall be legally bound to do so.
